

Some companies are offering free services for teachers because of the coronavirus outbreak.

- ABCmouse.com They are offering free accounts to schools that have been closed. Click here to apply for a free account.
- Scholastic Learn At Home has a free platform due to shutdowns.
- is free during school closures. Zoom is an online video platform (that we use and recommend) that you can use to host virtual classes with your students.
- Fluency Fitness This a great website to get kids moving and work on literacy. Free for parents during the closures.
- Freckle Freckle.com has free level access where students in K-8 can access Freckle for free. Here is a link directly to the training videos for kindergarten teachers to show you all of the possibilities that Freckle offers.
- Kahoot! offers free access to all features to support distance learning in schools affected by the coronavirus outbreak
- PBS Learning Media This offers elementary resources and lessons. Inspire your students with videos, games, and activities aligned to state and national standards.
- Coolmath.com is always free and is a fun place to play math games.
- MobyMax is providing all K-8 schools and school districts closed by COVID-19 With free Internet learning software
- Mystery Science has pulled its most popular science lessons and is offering them for anyone to use for free. No account or login is needed.
- PebbleGo is offering free access to schools. A great site for helping with reading comprehension and fluency.
- Zearn Math is always free and is great for math practice.
- Starfall.com This is a great place to review the alphabet and an even better place for practice reading.
- TVOkids.com This website is loaded with learning games and videos on all subjects.
- Seussville.com This website has a lot of books, videos, and games to play.

- Storylineonline.com This website is loaded with stories read by the authors and celebrities.
- ABCYa is a great site that has a ton of different literacy and math games for the students to play.
- SightWords.com is a great website where you can make games, flashcards, and more!

FREE ONLINE LESSON VIDEOS:

- Cincinnati Zoo is doing a live video each day featuring a different animal and giving a followup activity. (details here)
- Heggerty Phonemic Awareness is doing lessons for kids (we think, if we read that right).

FREE APPS:

We have also seen lots of teachers sharing great apps for working at home too.

- Khan Academy Kids is available on App Store, Google Play and Amazon Appstore for free.
- SeeSaw is available on App Store, Google Play and Amazon Appstore for free. Choose from thousands of engaging activities to use seamlessly within Seesaw. Search by grade level, subject, and keyword to find activities made by teachers like you.
- SplashLearn offers many games to play. After it is downloaded it can be played offline with no need for the internet.
- MooseMath app teaches counting, addition, subtraction, sorting and more. It's free and available on AppStore Google Play and Amazon Appstore.
- Math Slide is great to practice tens and ones and understanding numbers up to 100. It's free and available on AppStore Google Play and Amazon Appstore.
- Word Wagon is a great way to practice building sight words. It's free and available on AppStore Google Play and Amazon Appstore.
- Duck Duck Moose Reading has 9 different word and letter activities. It's free and available on AppStore Google Play and Amazon Appstore.